TENANT OVERVIEW

Culver Franchising System, LLC, doing business as Culver's, is a privately owned and operated American casual fast food restaurant chain that operates primarily in the Midwestern United States. The chain is mostly known for its "butter burgers" and frozen custard, but also offers cheese curds, chicken, fish, and salads. Culver's opened its first restaurant in 1984 in Sauk City, Wisconsin. It is currently headquartered in nearby Prairie du Sac.

Franchisee is part of a strong growth focused partnership group committed to excellent operations. Currently operating 19 locations in WI, IL, and FL. The key principle has been involved with Culver's for over 30 years, since the infancy of the brand. They continually have won accolades both within their franchise organization as well as in the communities they serve. They have been top 5 finalists in the chain wide Culver's Crew Challenge 5 times and their owner operators have been featured in numerous local and national articles including QSR Magazine

CHICAGO MSA

Chicago-Naperville-Elgin is one of the largest metros in the nation. The Chicagoland area is bounded to the east by Lake Michigan, expands over a 5,000-square-mile region in northeastern Illinois and extends into Wisconsin and Indiana. The metro houses 9.5 million people and comprises 14 counties. The city of Chicago contains 2.7 million residents. The greatest growth during the past 20 years occurred in the western portion of the region. In recent years, however, businesses have been relocating back into the city to attract young workers, supporting the development of high-rise residential and office towers in downtown Chicago.

Wealth of Intellectual Capital

The number of corporate headquarters in Chicago is second only to New York City. There are 35 Fortune 500 companies based locally.

Third-Largest Metropolitan Area

The metro population trails only New York City and Los Angeles in size. Growth in the metro has slowed in recent years.

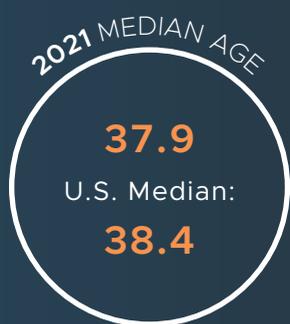

Large, Diverse Employment Base

The Chicago metro employs 4.6 million workers in an array of industries, including the growing tech and logistics sectors.

ECONOMY

- » The metro has one of the biggest economies in the nation, and is buoyed by its distribution, finance, manufacturing operations and growing high-tech sectors.
- » Fortune 500 companies headquartered in the metro include Boeing, Walgreens, Allstate and McDonald's.
- » The area is a major global tourist and convention destination. Typically, more than 50 million people visit the metro annually and support approximately 500,000 jobs in the leisure and hospitality sector. Although suppressed during the pandemic, visitations and employment are improving.
- » Large tech firms, such as Amazon and Google, attract a wide array of startup companies.

NET LEASED DISCLAIMER

Marcus & Millichap hereby advises all prospective purchasers of Net Leased property as follows: The information contained in this marketing Brochure has been obtained from sources we believe to be reliable. However, Marcus & Millichap has not and will not verify any of this information, nor has Marcus & Millichap conducted any investigation regarding these matters. Marcus & Millichap makes no guarantee, warranty or representation whatsoever about the accuracy or completeness of any information provided. As the Buyer of a net leased property, it is the Buyer's responsibility to independently confirm the accuracy and completeness of all material information before completing any purchase. This Marketing Brochure is not a substitute for your thorough due diligence investigation of this investment opportunity. Marcus & Millichap expressly denies any obligation to conduct a due diligence examination of this Property for Buyer. Any projections, opinions, assumptions or estimates used in this Marketing Brochure are for example only and do not represent the current or future performance of this property. The value of a net leased property to you depends on factors that should be evaluated by you and your tax, financial and legal advisors. Buyer and Buyer's tax, financial, legal, and construction advisors should conduct a careful, independent investigation of any net leased property to determine to your satisfaction with the suitability of the property for your needs.

Like all real estate investments, this investment carries significant risks. Buyer and Buyer's legal and financial advisors must request and carefully review all legal and financial documents related to the property and tenant. While the tenant's past performance at this or other locations is an important consideration, it is not a guarantee of future success. Similarly, the lease rate for some properties, including newly-constructed facilities or newly-acquired locations, may be set based on a tenant's projected sales with little or no record of actual performance, or comparable rents for the area. Returns are not guaranteed; the tenant and any guarantors may fail to pay the lease rent or property taxes, or may fail to comply with other material terms of the lease; cash flow may be interrupted in part or in whole due to market, economic, environmental or other conditions. Regardless of tenant history and lease guarantees, Buyer is responsible for conducting his/her own investigation of all matters affecting the intrinsic value of the property and the value of any long-term lease, including the likelihood of locating a replacement tenant if the current tenant should default or abandon the property, and the lease terms that Buyer may be able to negotiate with a potential replacement tenant considering the location of the property, and Buyer's legal ability to make alternate use of the property. By accepting this Marketing Brochure you agree to release Marcus & Millichap Real Estate Investment Services and hold it harmless from any kind of claim, cost, expense, or liability arising out of your investigation and/or purchase of this net leased property.
